The London Gazette.

Published by Authority

From Tuesday October 26, to Saturday October 30, 1756.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 29th Day of October, 1756.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

HIS Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to Order, that the Parliament which was to meet on Thurſday the Eighteenth Day of November next, ſhould be prorogued to Thurſday the Second Day of December following.—And that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain ſhould cauſe a Commiſſion to be prepared in the uſual Manner, for proroguing the Parliament accordingly.

WHEREAS, in Purſuance of His Majeſty's Commands, an Embargo was ſome Time ſince laid upon all Ships and Veſſels laden with Beef, Pork, and Butter, going from any of the Ports of His Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, which Embargo is at this Time ſubſiſting—And whereas it hath been repreſented to His Majeſty at this Board, by the Merchants and Traders of the City of Cork, that the prohibiting the Exportation of Butter muſt inevitably be attended with the moſt fatal Conſequences; His Majeſty this Day took the ſame into His Royal Conſideration, and is hereby pleaſed, with the Advice of his Privy Council, to Order, that the ſaid Embargo, as far as relates to Butter, be taken off from all Ships and Veſſels, and that they be permitted to proceed on their reſpective Voyages.—And his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of His Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, is to give the neceſſary Directions herein accordingly.

Vienna, Oct. 16. Yeſterday, being the Empreſs's Name Day, it was celebrated at Schonbrunn as uſual; there was a numerous Court in the Morning, and their Imperial Majeſties dined in Publick with the three eldeſt Archdukes, and two eldeſt Archdutcheſſes, the Pope's Nuncio, and the two Cardinals, attending; after which the Cardinals, Ambaſſadors, Foreign Miniſters, and principal Nobility of both Sexes, dined at a publick Table prepared for them; and, in the Evening, there was a drawing Room, and the French Theatre in this City was magnificently illuminated, and a fine Concerto given in it. It appears by ſome Liſts handed about in Town, that the Number of Auſtrians killed in the late Action near Lowoſchutz in Bohemia, amounts to 3008 Men, including the Officers, of whom 18 were killed on the Spot, and 95 wounded.

Dreſden, Oct. 20. The Saxons remain'd in the Camp of Pirna till the Night between the 12th and 13th, when the whole Army paſſed the Elbe, on a Bridge of Boats, under the Cannon of Konigſtein; but the Bridge broke before the Baggage was all got over, and the Pruſſian Huſſars have plundered a Part of it. The Saxons then took Poſſeſſion of a new Camp in a narrow Plain, ſhelving towards the River, which lies directly oppoſite to Konigſtein, and is bounded on one Side by the Banks of the Elbe, which are very ſteep and rocky, and on the other, by a very high Rock called the Lillienſtein, which again is ſurrounded with other high Rocks and Ravines, having at one End of it a deep Wood, and at the other a Road towards Waltersdorff, of difficult Acceſs at all Times, but then rendered almoſt impracticable by the Pruſſians. In this Situation, ſhut up on all Sides, the Saxon Army continued from Wedneſday to Friday, when they began to capitulate, but they marched out of their Camp only on Sunday Morning. Bread was ſent to the Soldiers as ſoon as the Capitulation was agreed upon.

Marſhal Brown came to Mitteldorff near Schandau with about 8000 Men, in order to have forced the Paſſes that were defended by the Pruſſians under General Leiſtwitz, diſtant about one Mile from the ſecond Saxon Camp; but as ſoon as the Pruſſians had Notice of his Approach, they reinforced the Party under General Leiſtwitz, and all their other Detachments on the other Side of the Elbe, ſo that Marſhal Brown could do nothing; and in his Retreat the Pruſſian Huſſars attacked his Rear Guard, and cut to Pieces two Companies of Grenadiers, and upwards of 150 Huſſars.

On Sunday the 17th, the Saxons Troops, preceeded by their General Officers, croſſed the Elbe, at a Place called Raden, where the Pruſſians had a Bridge of Boats; from thence they marched into a Plain in the Neighbourhood, and, after paſſing between two Batallions of Pruſſian Guards, they were received by two Battalions of the Prince of Pruſſia's Regiment, drawn upon the Right and Left; they there formed a hollow Square, and had the Articles of War read, and the Military Oath adminiſtred to them. As there was but one Bridge laid over the River, and the Roads from the Saxon Camp were extremely bad; and as every Regiment took the Oath ſeparately, this Ceremony laſted all that Day and the next. The Soldiers were all armed, but the Officers have refuſed to enter into the Pruſſian Service.

The whole Saxon Army conſiſted of 16,000, 3000 of which were Horſe and Dragoons. The Soldiers are extremely well-looking, and moſtly young Men, and do not ſeem to have ſuffered for Want of Proviſions during the Blockade of five Weeks. The Cavalry is almoſt ruined.

The Convention and Capitulation, which his Pruſſian Majeſty has made with the King of Poland, is ſaid to be in Subſtance, 1. That the King of Poland yields his whole Army, in Saxony, to the King of Pruſſia: The Officers not not to be compelled to ſerve againſt their Will. But the King of Poland to grant Diſmiſſion from his Service to ſuch as ſhall aſk it, who then ſhall be at Liberty to enter into the Pruſſian Service; and thoſe who do not chuſe to aſk their Diſmiſſion, are to be incapable of ſerving during this War. The King of Poland is ſaid to have given full Power to Count Rutoſſki, to grant ſuch Diſmiſſions to thoſe Officers who apply for them; and, it is thought, that many of the Saxon Officers will accept of Service.

2. That the Garriſon and Caſtle of Konigſtein ſhall remain in the Hands of his Poliſh Majeſty, he giving proper Aſſurances, that a perfect Neutrality ſhall be obſerved on his Part, and no Protection afforded from thence to the King of Pruſſia's Enemies, nor the free Navigation of the Elbe any Ways interrupted.

3. The King of Poland to be at Liberty to go where he pleaſes, and he has accordingly reſolved to ſet out as this Day for Warſaw.

The King of Pruſſia ſets out this Day with Part of his Army for Bohemia. The Army his Pruſſian Majeſty leaves in Saxony, will return to their old Camp at Sedelitz.

Bruſſels, Oct. 26. On Saturday laſt a Meſſenger arrived here from Vienna, ſince which Orders have been given to the Troops to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march on Sunday next, the 31ſt Inſtant, but their Route is not yet known. All the Staff Officers, belonging to the ſeveral Corps, are likewiſe ordered to march. The Body of Troops that is to take the Field, will conſiſt of 24 Batallions, 20 Companies of Grenadiers, 1 Regiment of Cuiraſſiers, and one of Dragoons.

In the Preſs, and ſpeedily will be publiſhed,

In Quarto, in French and Engliſh,

THE four following important and intereſting Pieces, containing a full Vindication of His Pruſſian Majeſty's Conduct in the preſent Juncture, viz.

I. A Memorial preſented to their High Mightineſſes the States General by M. de Helley, His Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſter at the Hague; in Anſwer to the Saxon Reſident's Memorial of the 29th of September laſt.

II. The King of Pruſſia's Anſwer to the Imperial Decree of Commiſſion at the Diet of Ratisbonne; and to that of the Aulic Council of the Empire.

III. A Memorial ſetting forth the Conduct of the Courts of Vienna and Saxony towards the King of Pruſſia, and their dangerous Deſigns againſt him; together with the Original Documents in Proof of them.

IV. A Memorial in Vindication of the King of Pruſſia's Conduct, from the falſe Imputations of the Court of Saxony.

☞ The London Magazine for September 1756, was illustrated with a beautiful and correct Map of the Eastern Part of the Provinces of New York, New Jersey, &c. being the present Seat of Action in North-America; and an elegant Plan of Fort Frederick at Crown Point: Likewise a fine Head of Major General Sir William Johnson.

By the KING's Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1751, in the 25th Year of his Reign, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Venereal Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Venereal Injuries, and all the lurking Relicts or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Venereal Distemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleets, are absolutely cured.

Sold at the Widow Adams's, Printer, at West-Chester; and at Mr. Gamble's, Distiller, at Gravesend; and at Mr. Browe's, Bookseller, in Christmas-street, Bristol.

Greek Street, Soho.

THE Partnership between Messrs. Bradshaw and Saunders, Upholders and Cabinet Makers, being dissolved the 15th of this Instant October; we beg leave to inform the Nobility and Gentry, who for the future we may either of us have the Honour to serve, that the Business will continue to be carried on as usual, by Mr. Bradshaw in Greek Street Soho, and by Mr. Saunders in Soho Square, the Corner of Sutton Street, on our own and separate Accounts. And whoever has any Demands on the said Partnership, are desired forthwith to bring their Accounts to Mr. Mayhew at Mr. Bradshaw's.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6d.
